DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Registered Investment Advisors are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of Mr. Bush providing investment advice. There is no information regarding Mr. Bush to disclose applicable to this item.

OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Mr. Bush is a registered representative of BPU Investment Management Inc. for which he may receive separate, yet customary compensation for effecting securities transactions. This compensation may include brokerage commissions, distribution/service fees and other fees. While BPU Investment Management Inc. and Mr. Bush endeavor at all times to put the interest of clients first as part of their fiduciary duty, clients should be aware the receipt of additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest and may affect the judgment of Mr. Bush when making recommendations.

Additionally Mr. Bush is an agent for insurance companies. He can therefore receive separate, yet customary compensation resulting from insurance transactions implemented on behalf of advisory clients.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

It is BPU Investment Management Inc.'s policy not to allow supervised persons to accept any form of compensation, including cash, sales awards or other prizes, from a non-client in conjunction with the advisory services we provide to our clients.
